PROFESSIONAL OVERVIEW

Ross Lee is the Principal at Lee Lawyers where he provides influential and ethical legal services in litigation, mediation, and insurance law.

Ross commenced in the law as an articulated clerk in 1998 after a notable career in the insurance industry and has extensive experience in civil litigation and insurance-related disputes, advising individuals, businesses, and insurers across a broad range of complex matters. His practice includes commercial and contractual disputes, indemnity and liability issues, and insurance coverage advice.

As Principal of the firm, Ross provides strategic oversight and high-level legal guidance, assisting clients to assess risk, clarify their position, and develop practical pathways toward resolution. Drawing on his background in both law and the insurance industry, he provides measured, strategic advice aimed at resolving matters efficiently and effectively.

Known for his clarity, responsiveness and practical approach, Ross works closely with clients and the firm's legal team to navigate complex disputes and achieve well-considered, commercially sound outcomes.

EXPERIENCE

Prior to the law, Ross served as an insurance claims officer, loss adjuster, and underwriter. This niche experience gives Ross unique capabilities in legal practice including in relation to personal injury and insurance claims. Ross also provides expert legal advice to clients in relation to business insurance and claims management, and legal risk management.

Between 2014 and 2024, Ross sat as a QCAT Member and Mediator, with a focus on Guardianship and Administration for adults with impaired legal capacity. Ross brings valuable insight developed through his experience on the bench in estate planning, estate administration, and estate disputes.

Combining his experience as a lawyer, in the insurance industry, and as a QCAT Member and Mediator, Ross is recognised for his expertise in all kinds of civil and commercial litigation matters including debt disputes, property and body corporate disputes, building and construction claims, corporation and joint venture disputes, and mediations.
